CERTIFICATE III IN CONCRETING

This Course is subsidised under the 2020-2021 Queensland VET Investment Plan administered by the Department of Employment, Small Business and Training's (DESBT)

DESCRIPTION

Are you currently working in the concreting field on residential and/or commercial projects? Or would you like to undertake a concreting traineeship? If so, this qualification is made for you! With our CPC30313 Certificate III in Concreting you will acquire the appropriate skillset and knowledge to work in the construction industry, as well as gain specialised concreting skills.

The construction industry strongly believes gaining the appropriate skillset and knowledge required for the industry will only occur with training and assessment that's undertaken in a real or very closely simulated workplace environment. Therefore, this qualification requires all core units to be delivered in this context.
